CLIP and STICK on your fridge 'til you're ready to shop for Invitations. Remember... orders should be placed at least 3-4 months in advance, to allow time for mailing.

Congratulations on Your Engagement!

You're entering into one of the biggest moments of your life. There sure is a lot of planning ahead, and you'll be on a timeline to get it all accomplished. You'll want to share your exciting news with everyone right away. But after the dust has settled, you'll need to get down to business.

Phew! Let the STRESS BEGIN... or not? You might want to take advantage of our "assistance" ... at least with the Wedding Invitation planning? At Creative Assistant Weddings, we can take a little of the pressure off by providing our wedding invitation albums to you for use in your home, on YOUR time, with YOUR family and friends.

"... offering a new twist to the wedding planning process."

Our wedding "stress-buster" program is being well received by newly engaged couples all over central NY. In-home dates are booking fast. Call today to reserve YOUR date.

Your wedding stationery can be one of the most important elements of a wedding, yet one of the most time-consuming and stressful. Shopping for your wedding stationery ensemble usually means getting your loved ones together to visit a few card stores. You'll most likely want other's opinions, right? You'll look through albums trying to find the perfect one for you. Aside from deciding whom to invite, the bride and groom (and sometimes family members) need to reach an agreement on which invitation will best reflect their personal style. Hopefully you'll get a clerk who can answer your questions.

Creative Assistant Weddings offers a new twist to the wedding planning process. It's not always easy to get everyone together at a store, on a certain date and time... and then try to find someone who is experienced enough to help you. Imagine sitting in your home in a relaxed atmosphere, at a time convenient for you and your loved ones, to peruse, discuss, and make decisions. Imagine finding decorations, favors, attendant gifts, candles, guest books and so much more that you can check off your list.

Well, that can be a reality by calling us today. Your wedding day is a very special event. Make it a perfect wedding, beginning with your invitations. Let us help you make it the best it can be! We hope you'll let us be your "personal wedding invitation consultant".
